

The power of praying together

As I have said before, prayer in faith is a powerful force that can enable God to work for us. God will hear and respond to the faith of one of His followers who appeal to Him, but even more so when several believers combine and unite their faith and prayers. The Bible says that even just two, who agree and combine their prayers of faith, can expect greater effectiveness. "Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and everything that you loose on earth will be dissolved in heaven. Furthermore, I tell you that if two of you on the earth desire anything, whatever, in unison, it will fall to them in the hands of My Father who is in heaven".

(Matthew 18: 19-20).

Time and again I have witnessed the astonishing results of believers praying together according to different needs ... and have always conveyed the importance of this principle to the many believers we have served. In my opinion, the promise of Jeshua to bring his presence to where two or more people gather in his name and answer their prayers of faith in accordance is one of the most amazing promises in the Bible. This is something that Christians must value and implement every time they meet.

An example of this can be seen in Scripture when the church body prayed together for Peter, who was arrested and imprisoned by King Herod. "...

while Peter was in prison, the congregation prayed very earnestly for him "(Acts 12: 5). And while they prayed, an angel appeared to Peter, who miraculously led him out of prison, but when he was shortly afterwards at the door was true where the congregation met, most could not believe it was him! Although a girl recognized Peter, many mocked it and even assumed it had to be a ghost until they finally opened the door and realized it was real! (Acts 12: 5-15). I've often had to laugh at this story ... when you consider how the believers prayed for a miracle of Peter's salvation and that they couldn't believe it when he actually appeared at the door. Hopefully it won't be for us be a surprise if we pray the same way for such miracles!
